

Through my eyes -

- a narrative on the American Revolution
as seen through the eyes of a cavalryman

Join Us

BEDFORD HISTORICAL SOCIETY

102ND ANNUAL MEETING

THURSDAY MAY 9TH, 2019

HISTORICAL HALL, 608 OLD POST ROAD

6:30: Reception & Exhibit

7:00: Historical Society Business

7:30: Presentation & Discussion

July 11, 2019 marks the 240TH anniversary of the Burning of Bedford. To commemorate our nation's fight for independence, a Commander of the Light Dragoons will provide a narrative of the American Revolution as seen through the eyes of a cavalryman. Join us as Commander Sal Tarantino shares this compelling chapter of history with highlights of Bedford's role in the Revolution.

free to all but RSVPs appreciated via email or phone info@bedfordhistoricalsociety.org or 914.234.9751